STANDARD DETAIL AND SPECIFICATION MANUAL

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section: Developer Information</th>
<th>Title: Alternate Means or Methods</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Effective: November 10, 1999</td>
<td>Revised: May 7, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number: DI-008</td>
<td>Authorized By: Gary Silva, Fire Marshal</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Scope: The provisions of this standard shall outline the procedure and policy of the Coastside Fire Protection District for Requests for Alternate Materials or Methods of Construction or Alternate Design. This option is allowed under the authority of Section 104.9 of the California Fire Code.

Submittal: Applicant must submit two copies of the request, plans and all accompanying substantiation material. It is highly recommended that the submittal be prepared by a Licensed Engineer, Architect or Fire Protection Engineer depending on the area of the request.

Project Information:

Project Address: ____________________________
Project APN #: ____________________________ Permit #: ____________________________
Owner Name: ________________________________
Owner Phone: ________________________________
Owner Address: ________________________________
Petitioner Name: ________________________________
Petitioner Phone: ________________________________
Petitioner Address: ________________________________
Occupancy Type: ______ Construction Type: ______ Sprinklered (Y/N) ______
Total Floor Area: ____________ Floor Area per Floor: ____________
End Use: __________________________________________________________________________

Request for Alternate: (Separate form for each request) ____________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Justification: (Findings of Equivalency)
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Petitioners Signature: ____________________________ Position: ____________ Date: ______